

American

Your American Red Cross course in which you've just registered for requires that you complete an online portion of blended learning and simulation learning prior to attending the in-class portion of the course. The online portion can be completed via the Direct Links platform. Direct Links is a self-service platform provided by the American Red Cross that provides you with immediate access to simulation learning via a single link/URL per course via an easy log-in process to begin accessing these courses quickly. Please select your appropriate course from the list below (select class that you registered for by the same name) and create a user account. You will be responsible for providing the instructor with proof that you have completed the online portion.

Select the course(s) you have signed up for below, and complete the online portion prior to attending your class:

If you are registering for BLS for Healthcare Providers with First Aid, please note that First Aid is a separate online portion below and must be completed as well as the BLS course prior to your in-class session. The First Aid portion for other combined First-Aid/CPR/AED courses is included in one link below. For BLS it is separate.

PLEASE COPY THE LINK(S) BELOW FOR YOUR COURSE & PASTE INTO YOUR BROWSER TO ACCESS.
